red fort like it is located in the heart of Delhi, Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan got it constructed in 1639, etc. Red Fort was the main home of the emperors of the Mughal dynasty for 200 years until the end of their rule.

Students enjoyed the Mughal style of architecture with the fusion of Persian and Hindu traditions. The chief chambers of the fort were Diwan-e-aam and Diwan-e-khaas. The other places were also cherished such as Rang Mahal, museums, etc. Students read the facts written around different chambers, mahals and museums of Delhi Fort with keen interest.
